a new state of the art regional community hospital. Gold Beach has a Mediterranean-like climate with relatively warm and dry summers. Winters rarely, if ever, drop below freezing. It's often referred to as the "banana belt" of the Pacific Northwest because its year-round climate is more temperate than anywhere else on the coast.

Beautiful trees, mountains, rivers, beaches and Pacific Ocean define the landscape. Activities in the area include fishing, rafting, whale watching, windsurfing, and hiking. Adventure seekers can enjoy jet boat tours on the Rogue River, while land-lovers can take a picturesque drive on Highway 101 south of Gold Beach, a stretch that was voted one of the best scenic routes in America. Numerous festivals punctuate the year including the South Coast Writers Conference, Brew and Art Festival, the Fourth of July Festival and "Whale of a Wine Fest" to name a few
